

Capacity: 75 patrons

Warren Beach General Rules:

1. You MUST have a purple Putnam Lake Park District 2020 wristband in order to enter the beach.
2. Each individual must have a facial covering visible to the gatekeeper when they sign into the beach.
3. Limit of 6 people per party. In order to sit together, your party must show up to the beach together.
4. Please sign in and out using your legal first and last name with the lifeguard as you enter and exit the beach. If you leave the parking area, you give up your space in your party, and if you return, you will have to sign in again and social distancing measures will be enforced by the lifeguards.

Lifeguards require you to provide your legal name in the case that the Town may have to perform contact tracing for COVID-19. If necessary, you may need to present a legal form of identification to the gatekeeper if requested. Failure to comply with these rules gives the lifeguards the right to deny entry to the beach.

Wristbands are available and free to those who live in the Putnam Lake Park District at the Patterson Town Hall, open weekdays 9 AM – 4 PM. You must bring an ID and proof of address.
